10. AGENDA ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

10.1 Sustainable SRC

Paper submitted by Ms Freame, Postgraduate Representative for Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences.

As the peak representative body for Macquarie University students, the SRC should lead by example, and make a commitment to be more environmentally conscious and make sustainable decisions in their conduct. As such, the incoming SRC members are asked to consider conducting eco-friendly SRC meetings and that a roster is needed for cleaning after each meeting.

RESOLUTION:
The SRC resolved to make a commitment to being more environmentally conscious in their decision making. This may start with the purchasing of sustainable crockery. Proposed by Ms Freame and seconded by Mr Hablutzell. Ten (10) votes in favour and two (2) abstentions.

ACTION:
Incoming SRC members to create a roster that two students per meeting clean up at the end.

10.2 SRC Postgraduate Conference Grants

Paper submitted by Ms Freame, Postgraduate Representative for Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences.

There is a huge demand for Postgraduate students to attend conferences, both domestic and international in order to complete their studies and are often paid for out of pocket. The proposed grant limits are $2,000 for domestic conferences and $5,000 for international conferences. It is proposed that the applications be approved by the SSAF, SRC Budget and Finance subcommittee, due to the time sensitive nature of the grants, and be reported to the Committee at the following SRC meeting.

RESOLUTION:
The SRC resolved to approve the allocation of $100,000 from the ex-MUPRA fund pool for the creation of a SRC Postgraduate Conference Funding Grants. Proposed by Ms Freame and seconded by Ms O'Gradey-Lee. Nine (9) votes in favour and three (3) abstentions.

10.3 Postgraduate Clubs and Societies Grants

Paper submitted by Ms Freame, Postgraduate Representative for the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences and Mr Alex Cullen, Distance Students Representative.

There are approximately eight Postgraduate student groups at Macquarie with many more that have Postgraduate student members. As part of the project of works approved for the use of the ex-MUPRA funds, various activities were proposed and supported by the SRC which would be targeted at Postgraduate students. Clubs and Societies Grants was included as one of these activities.

The Committee also noted the partnership between the City of Ryde and Venture Café to improve the amenities and open space in and around Macquarie Park. The Venture Café connects innovators and entrepreneurs with high-impact programming and interactive sessions. It provides an opportunity for researchers, students and professional staff to build relationships.

RESOLUTION:
The SRC resolved to approve the allocation of $63,770 from the ex-MUPRA fund pool for the creation of a Postgraduate Clubs and Societies Grants. Proposed by Mr Cullen and seconded by Ms Kimberly La. Eight (8) votes in favour and three (3) abstentions.
