4. PRESENTATIONS BY INVITED GUESTS

4.1 Grapeshot and Student Representative Committee relationship

Presented by Angela Heathcote, the Editor in Chief of Grapeshot.

Ms Heathcote provided an overview of Grapeshot’s editorial process and shared its point of view of Grapeshot’s presence at each Student Representative Committee (SRC) meeting in order to gain information on meeting discussions in a shorter timeframe.

Ms Heathcote advised that all Grapeshot reporters and staff conduct themselves under journalistic ethical standards and for the benefit of students. Currently Grapeshot must rely on the SRC meeting minutes for information, and these are only available publicly after ratification at the following SRC meeting. This practice does not allow Grapeshot to deliver the information to students in a timely manner.

Should Grapeshot members be unable to attend SRC meetings, they agreed to work with SRC to initiate an alternative solution such as a brief overview of what was discussed shortly after each SRC meeting provided by a representative assigned by the Committee.

Angela Heathcote departed the meeting at 5.58pm

4.2 Future of the Breakfast Bar

Presented by Cassie Puah, President of Locavores

The Committee acknowledged the successful SRC Breakfast Bar initiative but noted that not every member can participate in the event due to other commitments. In order to maintain this initiative long term, it was suggested that SRC collaborate with Locavores.

Ms Puah advised that Locavores is flexible with how engaged SRC would like to be with its Breakfast Bar and how SRC would promote its reputation through this event. SRC can fund and fully operate the Breakfast Bar or allow Locavores to operate the event. All food will be prepared in the Chef’s kitchen by Locavores staff (or SRC members). Any profit will be put back into this initiative which includes the equipment purchase and staff payment.

The SRC supports the initiative. However, as this proposal is in the draft stage, the estimated funding amount for this initiative has yet to be determined.

Mr Lachlan Greenberg arrived and joined the meeting at 6.34pm.

Cassie Puah departed the meeting at 6.40pm.
