Flowchart illustrating the rules for the award of honours in Law

Has the student completed all requirements of the student’s non-honours program, completing at least one unit in the year in which the student is applying to graduate?

- No
  - The student is not (yet) eligible for honours

- Yes
  - Has the student completed LAWS355?
    - No
      - Has the student attained a CWA of 71 or above?
        - No
          - The student is not (yet) eligible for honours
        - Yes
          - The student has completed LAWS398 and LAWS399 or has the student completed LAW550?
    - Yes
      - Has the student completed LAWS355, and
        - Has the student completed: 1. LAWS555, and 2. an additional 21 credit points in LAWS or LAWZ at 500 level?
          - No
            - The student is not (yet) eligible for honours
          - Yes
            - The student qualifies for first class hons
      - Has the student attained: 1. a CWA of 76 or above, and 2. a credit or above in LAW561 or LAWS561 or LAW564 or LAWS564?
          - Yes
            - The student qualifies for second class hons
          - No
            - The student is not eligible for honours

This flowchart is indicative only and does not replace the Handbook relevant to the student’s year of admission.